

Reference Letter for Mr. Alexander Nazarov

To Whom It May Concern,

The letter is confirmed that Mr. Alexander Nazarov was working on the project of new office of the Google Spb from September, 2007 to December, 2007. He was employed as a Project Manager.

During the time Mr. Alexander Nazarov proved a professional knowledge of contemporary market of building materials and equipment, a high qualification in sphere of reducing cost and terms of supply and GC. He supervised the project more then well. Moreover he controlled the process of participation in tenders (as sub-contractors and suppliers). He showed himself as a real professional in a building business.

We have never had any complaints to his work. Mr. Nazarov always does his work accurately and in time. Also I want to note, that he is one of the best specialists, that I have ever collaborated with.

Please don't hesitate to contact me if you need any further information.

Yours sincerely,

Maria Torbina
